Fairs and Festivals

MTAA "Artist's Alley"

An "Artist's Alley" Art Show and Sale will be conducted by the Mid-Town Art Association on Sunday, May 5, 12 noon to 6 p.m. The year old organization located behind the Circuit Playhouse at 162 N. Tucker is holding this event specifically for the benefit of area artists. Many V/E artist-residents have already signed up to participate according to BOB BARNETT of 1910 Mignon, who is a charter member of the association. Further information concerning the event may be obtained by writing Ms. Peggy Ranson at the Tucker address or calling 276-7017.

EPC Arts Festival

Evergreen Presbyterian Church has announced plans for its Third Annual Arts Festival and encourages artists in all mediums to enter the competition. Last year 90 artists exhibited their work and Evergreen expects more this year. The theme of this year's celebration will be "In praise of God for the creativity He has given us."

The Festival will run from May 5 to May 8 and will feature a reception for the artists at the church on May 5 from 2-4 p.m. All entries must be at the church by May 2 and be ready for hanging or display. Entry blanks can be obtained at the church and one must be completed for each entry.

For further information contact Sue Miller, chairman, Evergreen Art Committee, at 323-2094.

SW Renaissance Festival

The Southwestern college community will be presenting this spring a Renaissance Festival and the public is invited to participate. The Festival will officially run April 26-28 but many events are scheduled prior to this gala weekend.

Plans now call for a wide range of activities, some for fun and excitement and others as an educational excursion into this colorful period of European history. The fairgoer will be treated to Renaissance dancing, singing and music, jesters, gypsies, puppet shows and games of chance. Foods of the period will be sold from colorful booths and Old World craftsmen will demonstrate their respective skills.

There will also be plays, including Shaw's "Dark Lady of the Sonnets," and filmed versions of plays.

The Drama Club at the school originated the idea and it has now been joined by other departments and organizations in the production. The Club's first event will be a birthday party for Shakespeare on April 23. Beginning April 15 a series of lectures and films on the Renaissance will be presented to the student body.

A Renaissance Festival looks like a good opportunity for the V/E community to become more aware of campus activities and a good turnout is hoped for.

No VECAA meeting this month. You are invited to register for the "Inventing the Future" meeting April 20 - 21. See notice on Page 3.

Holy Week

The days and weeks preceding Easter are receiving special notice in many of the churches in the VECAA neighborhood. Lindsay Memorial Presbyterian has been involved with a Lenten Series, while McLean Baptist will start a Week of Renewal April 1. Reverend ERCIL BARKER of California will lead the services (the brother of McLean's Rev. Barker) and BERT BRIXEY will serve as Minister of Music. The week will feature pot-luck suppers Monday and Tuesday evenings and a youth "Food Festival" at Shelby Park Saturday. There will be services each night.

At Baron Hirsch Synagogue, it is the Passover season, beginning at sundown, April 6. The special Holy Days of Passover are April 7 and 8, and April 13 and 14. The days in between are the intermediate days of the Passover. There are daily services at Baron Hirsch, as always.

Maundy Thursday evening services will be held at Springdale Methodist Evergreen and Lindsay Memorial Presbyterian, and McLean Baptist Churches. All of our neighborhood churches will have regular Easter Sunday services.

The Easter Bunny is expected to arrive at all VECAA households with children very early on the morning of April 14.

Report Card

The second in a series of meetings on the educational program at Snowden was held as this edition went to press. The Evergreen News will report on this meeting in a future issue; appearing below is a report on the first meeting.

A series of meetings began February 5 under the title "Snowden School - Direction for Fall of 1974". The meeting was attended by thirty teachers and 43 parents and was led by Mr. JOE TAYLOR, principal. Hosts were Dr. and Mrs. ROBERT RICHARDSON.

The discussion included the discipline problems of today as well as the goals for next fall. The plan for the fall will seek to fulfill the philosophy: "Education should induce as many positive changes as possible in the learner's emotional, physical, and mental development thereby allowing each child to experience success." Specific objectives will be developed around this philosophy, as the popular experimental ideas in education are studied to see how each would apply to Snowden. (In the February P.T.A. Newsletter, Mr. Taylor invites parents to help with this study - call the school, 274-4500, and leave your name.)

Old Dogs - New Tricks

Rapid social change, technological advances and a restructuring of our institutions have made this world an uncomfortable place for many human beings. While providing material comfort and other superficial amenities our over-rational society lacks something. Many people suggest that what is lacking is spiritual values.

In order to explore this idea a new study-discussion group will begin at Southwestern's Center for Continuing Education on April 2. Frank Faux of the Center will lead discussions on spiritual values in literature. Included for examination are J.B., Siddhartha, Barabbas, The Old Man and the Sea, and Cry, the Beloved Country.

The group will meet each Tuesday from 7:30-9:30 p.m.; a fee of $15 which includes books is charged. For additional information call 274-6606.

Roadrunners

Important things happen when you deliver the Evergreen News. For example, JERRY JORDAN of 923 N. Idlewild has been elected president of the Environmental Action Council. TOM TAYLOR of 759 McNeil, formerly with UT, is now a systems manager at Data Communications Corporation.

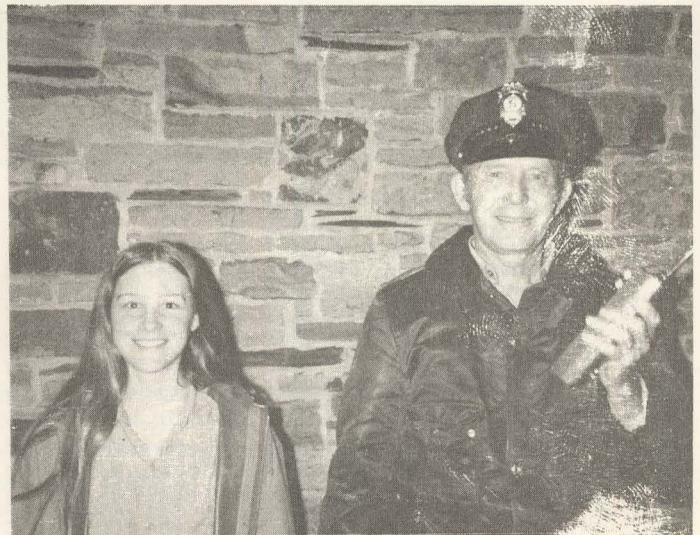

Volunteers are needed now inside the following areas: (1) N. Parkway-McLean-Overton Park Boulevard-Evergreen, and (2) N. Parkway-Evergreen-Tutwiler-Stonewall. If you would like to deliver your block, or more, call JEAN BRADFUTE at 272-2668.

Postal Poem

AUGUSTUS B. WASHINGTON, Sr., of 3713 Battlefield Cove contributes this month's poem in honor of his friends and patrons on his former mail route in the Hein Park and Evergreen areas. He now covers Summer and N. Parkway as far west as the Parkway House. Mr. Washington has been with the Post Office for 27 years.

It is my joy in life to find
At every turning of the road
The strong arm of a comrade kind
To help me onward with my load.

And since I have no gold to give,
And love alone must make amends,
My only prayer is while I live
God make me worthy of my friends.

In an effort to beef up campus security Southwestern has started using students to patrol - including girls. Here, LOIS IHRIG, a freshman from Chattanooga, helps Capt. CHARLES PEARCE keep the peace.
